Bass Ball.-The Baltic and United clubs play a friendly game at the Fair grounds this afternoon. The proceeds are for the benefit of the Baltics, and their friends who attend will not only have the pleasure of witnessing a fine game, but will be aiding their favorites to meet the beavy pecuniary responsi-bilities incurred during the season while endeavoring to p ovide for the entertainment of the public.

THE CITY HOTEL -As the late winds of autumn sharpen the night air to a keener edge, many a poor devil who is tramping wearily from nowhere to anywhere, is glad to rest his weary body on the soft side of the station house planks. We saw five last evening who were thus situated, and who were sleeping the sleep of the tired in the Court House basement. One poor unfortunate, who is badly crippled, will probably be sent to Cincinnati to day by the Overseer of the Poor.

THE contract for foundation and cutstone work of English Lutheran Chapel has been awarded to Mr. Andrew Long whose workmanship is well known in Wheeling, The work is being pushed James Wise was chosen General Super with vigor and the corner stone will (D.
